ARE YOU "NATURALIZED"

Taking out papers and being admitted to legal citizenship is one form of becoming a full-fledged citizen. Sometimes we are inclined to look upon these foreigners with a feeling that no amount of ceremony can make one a patriotic citizen. But history shows that countless numbers become loyal adherents to our institutions. Achievements in literature, science, art and finance are not limited to the native born. Furthermore, what English the naturalized citizen learns is the pure tongue—at least until it is contaminated with slang. What fragments of civics and government he learns are academic, but theoretical. In other words, at the start he is pretty near Americanized.

By ancestry we are all foreigners. It is what these citizens by adoption do after they have entered into active citizenship that makes them either Americans or hyphenated foreigners. But a native born is not by the fact of birth any more immune from obedience to law and from doing his part in the upbuilding of the community or country. Rather is his burden the setting of a proper example to the artificially born citizen; for the latter are human and certainly will "do as Rome does" when Rome does it.

The fact is that no one is actually born a citizen of any country in the true sense of the word, any more than he is born with education or with the skill in workmanship which he may acquire later. Man is not born with manners nor with respect for law. To the babe, the world is his, even the moon, and apparently nothing else will do. He has no respect for property rights or the niceties of etiquette. He is strictly a "foreigner" to everything but his own wants.

Man must acquire the art of good citizenship the same as he must acquire education, morals or religion. Living in the United States, making one's living in the United States and enjoying its protection does not of itself make one a good citizen. And the same applies to one's own home town or community; because it is localized effort that reaches individual needs and demands individual patronage.

A citizen is as a citizen does, whether he was born in Spain or Oshkosh. Citizenship is a school without a campus, a profession without a diploma, a business without reward in money, but with a great compensating value in helping to make a better nation and a happier community.

DOES HE BELIEVE IN ADVERTISING

There was a man who said he did not believe in advertising.

He is a married man.

When he was young and gay he had a sweet heart.

She became his wife.

He is happy now.

But why and how did he get her?

He advertised.

Not in magazines or by joining a "Lonesome Club."

But he advertised just the same.

He "showed off" at picnics; did stunts of physical skill where she could see.

His trousers were always pressed when he went a-courting.

He talked of big, brave things in her presence.

His tie was of the latest hue and pattern.

He told her of the little home they would acquire, and how it could be done on his salary.

By the time she answered "Yes" she knew who he was, where he was, and what he was worth financially and morally.

By his "advertising," her attention was directed to him, she knew all about him, and she was convinced of his value.

She simply "answered his ad."

Both are happy now, and both have profited by the transaction.

He simply "let her know what he had to offer."

Advertising is simply letting the world know what YOU have to offer.

Newspaper advertising is the best way to do that.

Advertising in the HOME NEWSPAPER is the BEST PARTICULAR WAY of doing it.

MAKING OUR MOUTHS WATER

Beautiful model automobiles are being shown this spring. When will it end! Answer: it will never end. You can no more stop fashion in motor cars than you can do away with changes in wearing apparel. Styles may repeat, but "newness" and "smartness" will never reappear. Only general principles of construction can be standardized. It makes our "mouth water" to see nearly every day some new quirk and turn on a car that we don't own. But it makes us ambitious to own one next year.

Does "skilled labor" mean skilled in getting out of hard labor?

A Vacation Necessity

Experienced travelers invariably provide themselves with Travelers' Checks before undertaking a journey. Travelers' Checks are accepted without question the world over. They are safer to carry than money because, if they are lost the finder cannot negotiate them. The checks are issued in handy bill-folds in denominations of $10, $20, $50 and $100, and are available at any office of the American Trust Company, at very small expense.

Mrs. J. A. Moore left this week for Kansas City where she will make her home with her parents. J. A. will go later after he closes his business matters here.

Contractor A. W. Johnson and family are getting settled in their new home on Alice way. The castor family will occupy the Whitman house next the Clean Cleaner plant on Central avenue.

The three local canneries all began work on apricots within the past week and are putting in more or less time, but as yet are not keeping very long hours. The town is well filled with people and help seemingly will be plentiful when the rush time comes on.

The Press is in receipt of word from Rev. W. C. Robins that he and Mrs. Robins are having a wonderfully fine time in Los Angeles. He mentioned especially the very wonderful moving picture, "The King of Kings," the weather had been warm. They expect to start home the 20th.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Miracle left Tuesday evening for Reno, Nev., where they were to meet Miss Lillian Cooke, who will spend some time with them at their cottage at State Line, Lake Tahoe. Miss Cooke, sister of Edmund Vance Cooke, the poet, will be remembered by many Campbell people as she spent some time here with Miss Kittie Johnson and Miss Jessie Lewis.

Rice growing in California has become such an important industry that the United States Department of Agriculture has sent Robert M. Gehl, associate marketing specialist, to San Francisco. He is opening a laboratory for the sampling and grading of this cereal. California is today "carrying coals to Newcastle" by shipping rice to Japan. The Federal Government, according to Gehl, wishes to help the California grower by establishing marketing stands, in order that he may compete on an equal base with other rice producing districts.

Union Notes

At a beautiful home wedding held on the evening of June 29, Miss Ada Lillian Walin became the bride of Wilbur Burdick Howes. The wedding was held at the bride's home in Los Angeles where a number of relatives and friends gathered to witness the ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her mother, Mrs. M. A. Walin. The bridal gown was a lovely creation of white. Mrs. Jack Comerford was the matron of honor, her gown being pink. The groom was attended by Jack Comerford.

The home was beautifully decorated with pink gladioli. The service took place beneath a large white wedding bell. The Rev. Engle, a former classmate of the bride, performed the ceremony. The groom is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Howes and has a host of friends who are wishing him and his bride many years of happiness.

Mr. and Mrs. Howes will make their home in Los Angeles where Mr. Howes teaches in one of the high schools of the southern city.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Howes motored south for their son's wedding.

Perry and Harold Shelley and MacDonald Feathers left by auto for San Antonio, Texas, where Perry Shelley will continue his study of aviation. The other boys will return to their homes shortly.

One of the largest gatherings of the community over the holiday week-end was at the home Mrs. Elizabeth J. Howes. This was a reunion of the descendants of the Moyer family of Pennsylvania. Mrs. Howes was the former Miss Elizabeth Moyer. This is the second gathering. Last year the relatives of Santa Rosa entertained. Those active as hosts this year were: Mrs. Elizabeth J. Howes, Freeman Howes, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hanrahan, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Howes, Mr. and Mrs. E. O. LaMontagne, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Howes, Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Leggett.

On the evening of July 2, the guests were entertained at a lovely dinner at the cozy We and Our Neighbors Clubhouse. This was followed by cards and dancing. On Sunday the guests were served a delicious luncheon under the large oaks in the yard of the E. J. Howes' ranch, where Mrs. Howes came as a bride in 1863. There were 25 guests from Santa Rosa, 10 from Los Angeles, three from Watsonville. The guests returned to their homes on Monday after a most enjoyable time.

Mr. Leslie La Montagne of Los Angeles is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. O. La Montagne. Coming north to attend the re-union held at his grandmother's. Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Howes also came north for this delightful gathering.

Mrs. Elizabeth Downing and daughters, Miss Flora and Miss Leila, and their aunt, Mrs. Mae Nash, have returned from a pleasant two weeks' tour.

Mrs. Lowell H. Grant Sr. and sister, Mrs. J. J. Cox, are enjoying a lovely vacation in the Big Basin.

Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Grant Jr., who were recently married, have returned to Oakland after a most delightful trip to Lake Tahoe, Reno, Nev., Santa Cruz and Big Basin. They will make their home in Oakland where Mr. Grant is employed by the American Express Company.

Mrs. Clifford Feathers and children of San Francisco are spending a few weeks at the A. M. Feathers ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Downing left for a motor trip to Seattle, Wash.

Lone Scouts

The Lone Scouts of the Spreading Eagle Tribe recently held their first election. Francis Nunes was elected chief, Orin Medley, scribe and Breton Goddard, wampum bearer.

The Campbell Wigwam held its regular meeting Saturday evening, July 2. A treasure hunt was staged and each tribe put up a good fight to secure the treasure. The Lone Wolf Tribe managed to outwit the other tribes in the scramble for the hidden treasure.

Seven of the advanced Lone Scouts recently went on an overnight trip to the Indian burial grounds in the sand dunes near Pigeon Point on a relic hunt. They found many spear heads and bones and a few arrowheads.

Plans are being made for a California Lone Scout Rally which will be held in Campbell this fall. Every effort will be made to make it a grand success.

CO-OPERATION OF PRUNE MEN TO AID INDUSTRY

Rehabilitation of the California prune industry under the completely co-operative plan sponsored by the Growers' San Francisco mass meeting in last December took another step forward with the announcement by the executive committee of growers that the contract with the packers for the 1927 crop had been signed by over 95 per cent of the packing establishments, leaving further development of the co-operative system dependent upon favorable action of the independent growers.

CALLS FOR 1927 CROP

The contract called for delivery of the entire 1927 crop grown by 90 per cent of the State acreage, to be taken by the signatory packers. It was submitted to the packing firms Thursday, June 30, and owing to the holidays, the closing time was set ahead to Tuesday, July 5.

Today, the following packing firms are behind the new co-operative system, having signed the contract as evidence of their belief that the system will be most effective in putting the industry on a sound financial basis:

Growers Packing and Warehousing Company, California Packing Corporation, Rosenberg Brothers and Company, Richmond-Chase Company, O. A. Harlan and Company, Napa Fruit Company, Smith-Frank Packing Company, Mark L. McDonald Jr., Garcia and Maggini Company, Pacific Coast Canners, Inc., Geo. E. Hyde and Company, Guggenheim and Company, J. B. Inderrieden Company and Libby, McNeil and Libby Company.

SIGN CONDITIONALLY

The two last firms, Libby McNeil and Libby, and the J. B. Inderrieden Company, with headquarters in Chicago have signed the contract through their San Francisco offices subject to final confirmation by their head office, as there was not sufficient time for such action before the time limit ended.

With the packers aligned with the new movement, it remains for the independent growers to bring their acreage into the agreement for complete co-operation. The second party to the contract, the California Prune Marketing Company, completed its incorporation today.

40 PER CENT MUST SIGN

Legal preliminaries having been completed, the marketing end of the co-operative is practically ready to function, dependent on securing the necessary acreage. The contract will not go into effect unless 40 per cent of the independent prune acreage, five years and older, signs up with the California Prune Producers.

Enlisting the independent growers in the California Prune Producers will begin at once. This new co-operative will endeavor to sign 40 per cent of the acreage not contracted under the California Prune and Apricot Growers' Association. Its contract will be entirely independent of, and its members distinctly separate from the present association. Its entire crop, however, will be contracted by the California Prune Marketing Company, the central selling agency for all California prunes, putting into one concentrated organization the responsibility for distributing sale of the crop to the best advantage in world-wide markets.

GROWERS APPROVE

The California Prune and Apricot Growers' Association, through its board of directors has already ratified the growers-packers contract, and authorized its officers to proceed to sign the contract with the Prune Marketing Company, leaving the responsibility for the success of the enterprise entirely in the hands of the independent growers.

Ranking fifth in the national list for highest total values of property subject to taxation, and third among those States compelled to make large annual payments for Governmental functions, California last year was one of three States which went through the fiscal period without making a property tax for State purposes.

YOSEMITE TRAVEL IS GREATEST EVER

Expanding the walls of Yosemite Valley is truly a herculean task, but one which is not beyond the initiative of Californians inspired by the urge of hospitality.

Don Tresidder, president of the Yosemite Park and Curry Company, host and manager of the valley's hostels, camps, bungalows, cottages, tents and other comfort facilities, wired the California Development Association today that it might notify all tourist information bureaus that the facilities for making the thousands of visitors to the valley comfortable had so increased that despite the tremendously augmented travel this year they will be able to provide housing and food for all visitors.

"This is the record year of Yosemite," states Tresidder. "The volume of visitors seeking the beauty of this wonderland of nature has greatly exceeded the records of any previous season."

"The fame of Yosemite Valley has circled the earth; those who have visited here have left with high enthusiasm, which has radiated out through many circles. We have watched the growth, which this particular phase of California fame has brought and we are prepared to meet the increase, expanding our accommodations until our lodges, hotels and camps extend practically from wall to wall across the surface of the valley. We are prepared to take care of even more thousands, as the tourist enthusiasm over this beauty spot grows."

"The massive sides of the valley rearing thousands of feet up in perpendicular rock surface, may not be truly termed elastic, but we are expanding them nevertheless by increasing our comfort facilities to welcome all tourists entering the portals of Yosemite."

The figures given on this chart indicate an increasing fruit tree acreage in this country. The increase in California, as shown below, is much more pronounced.

ACREAGE OF BEARING TREE FRUITS AND NUTS IN CALIFORNIA

The chart at the right indicates a tremendous growth in the acreage of tree fruits and nuts in California and, according to forecasts, the acreage will continue to increase for several years more.

It is becoming increasingly difficult to market the increasing production. Competition is becoming more severe; buyers are more particular; and, worst of all, on account of lack of complete co-operation among growers, prices have been unstable—"there is no stability to prune prices."

Registration figures for summer Session at the University of California at Berkeley, reached a total of 4894 at the close of the fifth day, Recorder James Sutton reports. This figure is 3.4 per cent larger than the total for the corresponding day in 1926, but is slightly smaller than the equivalent figure in 1925. It is expected that at least as many students will register this year as did last year when a total of 4975 was reached.

Substantial gains in the assessment rolls of both the city and county of Sacramento are shown in reports filed with the City Council and the Supervisors, respectively. The grand total assessed valuation for the county is set at $164,289,520, this figure being more than $13,000,000 over the 1926 total. That Sacramento has $26,860 is also shown. For the city of Sacramento, the assessed valuation is $103,673,360, which amount is $4,000,000 in excess of last year's total.

Condemnation of Gov. Young's action in pardoning Charlotte Anita Whitney who was convicted of violation of the California Criminal Syndicalism Act was expressed in a resolution adopted by the Glendale Post of the American Legion. The post also resolved to instruct its delegates to the County Council to take steps to get the matter before the State convention of the Legion to be held at Santa Barbara, August 2 to 4, next.

California's 400 National Guard officers, last week received checks from the State for $23 each as their clothing allowance for last year, which is the State's payment for the upkeep of their uniforms.

The historic Union Church and seven dwellings in the pioneer mining town of Shasta, eight miles northwest of Redding, were destroyed by fire recently with a loss of $50,000. The most serious loss was the church. It was built in the early sixties, and in its large belfry were inscribed names of thousands of persons who had been buried from it. The bell was one of the finest in the State, having a sweet tone, seldom duplicated.

While the consumption of head lettuce the year around has increased more rapidly than that of any other common garden vegetable, the success of home gardeners in raising good head lettuce has not multiplied anywhere nearly as rapidly. Many have given up the attempt and left head lettuce to the professional gardener. To produce lettuce that form good heads (a real vegetable gardening accomplishment) try the little Mignonette, a variety that many gardeners find will head when they have no luck with anything else. Iceberg, also known as New York or Wonderful, is another late variety which many gardeners like, but Mignonette is the surest.

The orange belt city of Santa Ana scored a new marriage license record during June in its bid for the honor of being Southern California's Gretna Green. The figures were 635, compared with 523 for June last year.

Because of the rapid growth of Marin Junior College at Kentfield, Marin County, and the greatly increased enrollment indicated by application for entry at the fall term, the directors have found it necessary to construct a new building. Bids have been called for a one-story frame, stucco finish building to house two laboratories and a library.

California, supporting 5,000,000 people at the present time, should have 15,000,000 within her boundaries. This is the opinion of Stephen Barnson, state real estate commissioner, as expressed in a letter read before a board of directors' meeting of the California Real Estate Association recently. To secure the additional population Barnson advocated that the State of California set aside a sum of money for a nation-wide advertising campaign and create a state bureau of information to collect and classify all the resources of the state, pointing out opportunities in every line of endeavor.

City-owned water systems in the 152 California municipalities where they were maintained last year returned a total revenue of $16,595,262.41, against total ordinary expenses of $8,781,026.92. From the sale of water only the cities realized $14,658,919.84. All but one of the twenty-two city-owned electrical systems returned handsome profits. The city showing a loss was Biggs, where the receipts were only $5,399.25 and the expenses $5,672.39. Considered as a whole, the plants returned $15,104,957, against expenses totaling $7,842,128. These receipts included $13,018,093 for the sale of light and power.

A new map of Tehama County, replacing the present map, made in 1903, and now obsolete, has been completed by County Engineer C. A. Luning. The new map will be three by six feet, and will contain all points in the county, locations of state highways and county roads, and will show the ownership of all land tracts and farms.

During the first three months of 1927 commercial fishermen operating in the inland waters and off the coast of California in the Pacific Ocean caught and marketed 159,390,739 pounds of fish, according to the quarterly report compiled by the Department of Commercial Fisheries of the State Fish and Game Commission. The greatest volume of fish caught was 147,840,632 pounds of sardines taken during this three-month period. Running next comes rock cod, which totals 2,401,811 pounds, and next is sole, which totals 2,225,476 pounds.

INVESTMENT IN INDUSTRY

It is estimated that the capital invested in the motor vehicle manufacturing business, as represented by tangible assets is $2,089,498,325, reports the California State Automobile Association.
